

Award of Excellence Nomination Form

Mission Statement

The women's Foundation of Southern Indiana will promote change and programs to improve the quality of life in Southern Indiana by:

- Developing financial resources that affect positive change for women
- Identifying human resources that provide support and advocacy for women, and
- Implementing a public awareness campaign that targets the needs and advances made on behalf of women.

The Women's Foundation of Southern Indiana is accepting nominations for Awards of Excellence to be announced at its 2011 Celebration Dinner, to be held on October 24, 2011. The awards will be given to non-profit organizations or places of worship that provide services in conjunction with the WFSI 2011 platform "The Ageless Woman".

Nominees must be located or providing services in Clark, Floyd or Harrison counties in Southern Indiana. Those organizations not located in, but providing services in these counties must provide documentation of the services provided and in which county they are being provided.

In keeping with the above Mission Statement, complete the following form to submit your nomination for the Award of Excellence.

All nominations must address the following:

1. Documentation of number of people served.
2. Testimonials from participants whose lives have been impacted.
3. Documentation of charitable organization status of nominee, ie. 501©(3).

NOTE: Organizations may not be nominated by staff members of nominee. However, Board members or volunteers may nominate.

Deadline for nominations/application: September 26, 2011
